SIMPLY PUT: FOOD IS ART.

Real Simple Studio is a video and photography studio with a focus on offline media [magazines, catalogs, store posters] and DSLR videos for teasers, bumpers and social networks.

The studio is known for working closely with its clients to create and develop their brands' image, mood and concepts. The team oversees and provides solutions for all stages of communication and completion, including post-production, sound, graphics and development of customised culinary recipes.

With a total area of 830 m2, the studio provides an offline room and 5 video and photography setups which operate simultaneously. It is fully equipped, with 2 fully-working kitchens and a wide array of tableware, tabletops and textures to create countless moods and backdrops.

A top-down view of four salmon tacos arranged on a white, distressed wooden surface. Each taco is made with a round, slightly charred tortilla. The fillings include pieces of cooked salmon, shredded purple cabbage, sliced red onions, cherry tomatoes, fresh cilantro, and a lime wedge. Small red chili flakes are scattered around the tacos. A small glass bowl of white sauce is visible in the bottom right corner.
